The simple elegance of its design is rivaled only by its durability and strength, making this Axe an ideal tool, bound for your basecamp and beyond. Its forge head features a cutout to decrease friction while chopping and a flat back for hammering home pegs and stakes. Full-tang construction adds legendary sturdiness, while a co-molded handle ensures a secure grip in all conditions. It won't make you a lumberjack, but it'll make you feel like one.

I was pretty disappointed when I opened this up and found a blunt edge on this Axe. Not just dull but truly a flat edge. I was headed out the next day so I grabbed the files and put a quick edge on it and off I went. The size and weight are nice for vehicle supported camping but too heavy to pack very far if hiking. I am currently underwhelmed but I think it just because of the poor edge on it. I'll get it sharpened up this winter and I'm sure I'll be much happier with it. This is the first SOG product I have ever purchased that wasn't at least acceptably sharp.
